

“You Finish the Story!”

Imagine you are Guy de Maupassant writing the short story, “The Necklace.” You have come to the end of the story, but now you want to add a little more. Create a scene with Madame Loisel and her husband right after she finds out the necklace is a fake! In this scene, she must return to her husband and tell him what she found out. What does she say? How does she feel? How does he react?

Requirements:

- 1) At least one full handwritten page, but less than two. If you are known for large handwriting, it should be longer than one page. If you type it, it should be at least one double-spaced page but less than two!
- 2) Correct grammar and spelling!
- 3) Correct heading!
- 4) Answers all of the above questions and is written like a story!
- 5) Uses at least 2 vocabulary words you have learned so far!
